PENNIES SCARCE

Increased Trolley Fare Creates New Demand for the Coppers.

The one cent increase in the fares of the West Penn Railways company went into effect yesterday morning and coke region travelers have found additional use for the old copper penny and conductors on the lines also realize just what a penny means. The company was hard pressed at times yesterday for pennies. Conductors were supplied with them when they started on their runs, but making change soon "ate up" the available supply. The supply today is somewhat better.

At Connellsville, Greensburg and Uniontown about $125 in pennies is required each day. The demand for approximately $400 in pennies each day is hard to fill. The war tax is now collected beyond the sixth fare zone instead of the eighth as formerly when the five cent fare was in effect. Conductors have been supplied with strips which show at a glance just what the fare and war tax amounts to.

AMERICAN ARMY TO BE USED AS IT ARRIVES AT FRONT IS BRITISH AMBASSADOR'S VIEW

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 13.—Lord Randall, the British ambassador, in a statement here today declared that the announcement coming by way of Ottawa that the American army would not be fully utilized on the western front until it developed to its full strength was directly opposite to information he had received from the British war cabinet and that he was in the dark as to its meaning. The ambassador's statement added to the puzzle in which American officers found themselves today on reading the announcement from Ottawa. Confidential information reaching here recently indicated that such a plan as outlined from Ottawa was under discussion.

PART OF 110TH REGIMENT MAY HAVE BEEN AMONG PARADERS IN LONDON

Great City Thrilled as Never Before by Sight of Our Troops Marching Through Its Streets.

Reports are current, but nothing is definitely known, of the presence in the big reception London gave American troops on Saturday, of contingents of the 110th Regiment. Press dispatches make mention of troops from Camp Gordon, which was a National Army cantonment, as being in the parade. It is barely possible that part of the 110th Regiment were also among the paradiers. It is understood that the headquarters band, hospital corps and the first battalion of this regiment sailed ten days or more ago, hence their arrival in London on Friday or Saturday would be in accordance with the schedule of overseas movement. The second and third battalions are understood to have sailed on later dates.

According to the London newspapers that great city was thrilled more by the passage of the Americans through its streets than any other spectacle of the war.

"Londoners cheered yesterday as they had not cheered for many months," says one paper. "From the moment when the first battalion of the 110th Regiment marched through the city, the last minute farewell to the troops called out 'come back soon' today was one of heartening friendliness."

"It was the women who gave the Americans a special welcome. 'God bless you,' they cried all along the route. Mothers lifted their children that they might have a sight of the soldiers from across the sea who were going to fight side by side with Daddy."

MOTHERS' DAY OBSERVED

Is Marked by Wearing of Flowers and Services in Churches.

Having a deeper significance this year than ever on account of the war, Mothers' Day was fittingly observed yesterday by virtually all the churches. The name and memory of mother was lauded by pastors, who delivered appropriate sermons, while the church choirs rendered musical programs. In some of the churches the carnation, the official flower, was substituted by badges of white or colored ribbons. Sprays of the simple little wild flowers were also worn.

SIXTY PER CENT OF AUTO DRIVERS VIOLATE TRAFFIC RULES OF CITY, ESTIMATE

This is Found in Count of 300 Passing a Given Point Saturday

MORE POLICE DEMANDED

Mayor to Ask West Penn to Place Officer Near the Waiting Room.

DUGGAN ON THE WAR PATH

Executive Ready to Proceed Against Persistent Ignoring of Rules Laid Down by the City; Motorcyclists Charged With Being Too Noisy.

With the warm weather which has brought out hundreds of automobiles that have been stored in garages during the winter months, the police are again having trouble with violators of the law who persist in reckless driving, running without license plates, running at night without lights and using cut-outs. The mayor this morning asked that automobile drivers be warned that arrests will follow repeated violations.

The heavy traffic Saturday night brought up the question of reckless driving. The police had to warn many persons who failed to slow down when going through crowds and never stopped when passing a street car loading or unloading passengers.

Court was kept of the cars passing the West Penn Railways company waiting room where hundreds of persons were loaded and unloaded during the evening, and out of 300 cars passing between 7:30 and 10 o'clock, it is estimated that 60 per cent were violating one law or another.

The police do not intend to show partiality in firing drivers who commit offenses. There will be no wanton crusade against automobile owners, and drivers will not be picked up for a minor offense unless the practice is continued.

Mayor Duggan declared he believed the West Penn company should place an officer on duty at their waiting rooms to handle the traffic during the loading and unloading of cars. "We can't put our police force there all the time," he said. The mayor also said the cars blocked the streets too long after being unloaded. He said he intended taking the matter up with the company.

Councilman M. B. Pryce suggested that an officer be stationed at the corner of Arch street and West Crawford avenue to divert as much traffic as possible north over Arch street; instead of up Crawford street and turning into Pittsburgh street, thereby relieving the heavy travel over the main streets.

"We have conditions here which do not exist in another city the size of Connellsville, because our heaviest traffic is all on one corner." It was suggested that a dead line be made at Buchanan corner, requiring all drivers to stop before going around, but it was decided to let the traffic policeman decide whether a car should stop or not. Drivers will be required to slow down or a reckless driving charge will be made if the corner is approached at a high speed.

Corner policemen at night are also greatly inconvenienced, by drivers who approach with their bright lights on full. The glare blinds the officer and everyone in the path of the car.

The cut-out question was brought up again. Councilman Pryce said he had been looking into the question. "I thought maybe a car gained power going up a hill with the cut-out open," he said, "but I found that it is probably just because the driver wants to hear the noise." Mr. Pryce had inquired from automobile men on the cut-out question and learned that some big motor car concerns had stopped making them, one company not having put a cut-out on a car since 1915.

The motorcyclists are the worst offenders with the cut-out. The noise is sharp and penetrating, never failing to wake a sleeper when one goes past his house at night. Many complaints have been made recently on the use of cut-outs.

"If we can't break up these violations without having to have arrests, then we will have prosecutions made," declared Mayor Duggan.

The parking of cars in the business section over the allotted time is also becoming a dangerous practice again as it narrows down the available space for traffic. Drivers will be warned against leaving their cars near the curbs over the allotted time.

SEEDS OF GOURD FIFTY YEARS OLD VERY MUCH ALIVE.

Special to The Courier.
SMITHFIELD, May 13.—Aunt Jane Abraham has, or did have up to a few days ago, a relic that she very much regrets the loss of. This was a little gourd that had been in the family for 50 years and was used to darn the family socks. While using it for this purpose the other day she let it fall, when it rolled under a rocking chair and was crushed by the rocker.

Her son, W. R. Abraham, laughed at her when she gathered up the seeds and said she was going to plant them, saying they were too old to grow, but Aunt Jane proceeded to plant them in a box prepared for the purpose and now the seeds are on William. The seeds have begun to germinate and are peeping through the ground.

FLAG IS PRESENTED

Judge E. H. Reppert Speaker at Vanderbilt Rally Last Evening.

The Third Liberty Loan Honor-Flag for the Vanderbilt district was presented Sunday evening in the Presbyterian church by Judge E. H. Reppert of Uniontown. The flag was received by Rev. D. C. White, pastor of the Presbyterian church. J. B. Henderson had charge of the services, which opened by the singing of "America." A double quartet, composed of four ladies and four men, sang "Keep the Home Fires Burning" and "Tenting Tonight." The audience then sang "The Fight is On" and "Onward Christian Soldiers." After the addresses of the evening "The Red, White and Blue" was sung by the choir. The service was concluded by the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

In a short talk Chairman Henderson, who headed the Liberty Loan campaign, brought out that the quota for this district was $24,350, and that 320 persons subscribed the sum of $70,250, or over double the quota, which gave them a star on their honor flag. Vanderbilt district also is fourth in the county in its percentage.

$1,411,750 OF LIBERTY BONDS.

Omitting from present consideration the patriotism and community pride that were displayed by the people of the Conneltsville district during the recent Third Liberty Loan campaign, have you realized what the purchase of $1,411,750 worth of these securities means?

Considered purely as an investment proposition, the security of which is the incalculable wealth of the greatest nation on earth, it means that the 9,250 bond subscribers will receive, in round numbers, an annual interest income of $70,000. If they retain possession of these bonds until their maturity 10 years hence they will mean-time have received in interest the sum of $700,000, and Uncle Sam will return to them the amount of the purchase price.

Long as the time we have been to fast pay-days in this section $70,000 a year may not seem to be an extraordinarily large amount, but there are none who dare say that addition of an average of $5,833 per month, or $1,154 per week, or $115 per day, is not a very respectable increase in the tangible wealth of the community. That is what the payment of interest on the Third Liberty Bonds bought by people in this district will mean when reduced to the terms of the pay-roll, which is a commonly accepted measure among our people.

The purchase of $1,411,750 worth of bonds by 9,250 persons represents an average of $152.92 per purchaser. From the standpoint of investment this average is not a large amount. It means, however, that a large percentage of the subscribers consist of persons who have never made investments in government securities, and perhaps in no form at all. Thus they have learned their first lessons in the prudent conservation of their means and have been given the incentive to practice thrift and economy. The wide distribution of bonds, even if many persons limited their subscriptions to the minimum of $50, has an equally significant meaning. The holder of every bond, no matter what its denomination may be, now has a substantial interest in the progress of the war to a victorious conclusion. This relation fosters citizenship with a new importance and patriotism and loyalty with a new sincerity and effectiveness that will have concrete expression in a unity of purpose in our nation which will make it invincible against the foe of civilization. This has a value that cannot be computed in dollars and cents, but it will be worth more to us as a people and a nation than the redemption of all the Liberty Bonds the government may issue will cost.

In the last analysis that is the real meaning to the Conneltsville and all other districts of the largely increased amount and number of subscriptions on the Third Liberty Loan.

Litigation in the Thompson case, like Tennyson's brook, seems destined to run on forever. Of the fact that it does not give us license to let mother do all the work in the home.

Even if you did wear a bright colored lower and take part in yesterday's observance of Mother's Day that does not give you license to let mother do all the work in the home.

With the Bond campaign experts in control of the Red Cross drive there can be no doubt of its success.

Rippling Rhymes

By Walt Mason.

THE COLD RAIN.

The wind is cold, the sky is wet, the rain's continuous and moist; and many people sigh and fret who on the sunny days rejoiced. Some voters are so poorly built they view a dark day with fright; they think that all the beans are split if there should be a cloud in sight. But I have made a quady fire, I hear it roaring up the flue; and here I sit and wait my lyre, and raise a happy howdydo. I look out at the liquid rain that hasn't sense enough to quit, and see it washing down the pane, and do not throw a morbid fit. The rain will make the fields more fair, and that should cheer up dismal souls; and it will purify the air, and make the microbes hurt their hoarse. The rain will save the oats and rye—that's what the good old country groaned! How often, through a lack of rain, has drouth stricken the country ground! So it is sinful to complain because your picnic is postponed. The country roads are dripping wet, no motor cars along them purr; but it's a wicked thing to fret because your joyride won't occur.

GROCERY SPECIALS

Scarcity of groceries and high prices during the last year; too much credit, and general bad management, has put many grocers out of business, and has put many more out that were rated first-class managers. It is hard to run a grocery store and make money now-a-days. The Union Supply Company is running sixty-three grocery departments now: prices are advancing, goods are scarce. Notwithstanding, we are operating and have a full supply all the time, but are selling under greatly reduced profits. Flour, sugar, coffee, potatoes, canned goods, and all goods such as the Government is using large quantities of, are all advancing and are sold under very close prices. We are operating under a Government license, strictly carrying out every ruling of the Food Administrator, doing everything we can to help the Government, and expect our customers to try and do the same. We have an abundance of goods, can take care of your wants and are doing it. In our meat markets the usual good stock and assortment of fresh beef, fresh pork, salt and smoked meats, and all pork products, are on sale and are being sold at low profits. The quality of goods, the low prices, the sanitary condition, courteous treatment, prompt deliveries, are all inducements for you to buy from our grocery and meat departments.

OUR NINTH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

The Economy Event of 1918

Crowds the Store With Thrifty Shoppers

In spite of the rainy, windy weather, the people came and kept on coming and bought most freely of the extraordinary offerings—knowing they were saving 20 to 30 and even 40 per cent.

THE REASON NO PRICES ARE PRINTED IN THIS ADVERTISEMENT is because the different department heads are so busy that it was impossible for them to give details about the additional merchandise, the values, the prices, etc., in time for this paper going to press. One department manager probably voiced the sentiments of the entire store when he said: "What's the use of publishing prices when every item is a dead-sure out-and-out bargain?"

CROWDS WILL BE EVEN GREATER when the delegations from this city and fifty miles around have gone home and spread the news of the wonderful savings to be had in this Anniversary Sale.

EACH INCOMING EXPRESS brings fresh new underpriced purchases from friendly manufacturers and which we in turn pass on to our customers at the most sensational savings as a substantial appreciation of their generous and loyal patronage.

AND WHEN YOUR NEIGHBORS show you their bargains and show you the big amount they have saved, you will regret it if you haven't taken advantage of this opportunity.
